WHEREAS, Future Interior Designers of America, the student chapter of Interior Design students of South Dakota State University, helps people to be aware of their environment and assists individuals in making their environment more efficient, useful and attractive; and,

WHEREAS, This organization extends classroom learning through chapter projects which develop leadership and initiative and help young women and men learn how to plan, make decisions, carry out and evaluate programs of action as they work with other youth and adults in their school and community; and,

WHEREAS, Future Interior Designers, its student Interior Design Chapter, offers members an opportunity to work together for common purposes for the improvement of themselves, their families, and their communities:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of February 14, through February 18, 1977, as in South Dakota, and urge all citizens to acquaint themselves with the activities and values of the Interior Design students at SDSU, to show interest in it and to give help and encouragement to these young women and men who are working to achieve knowledge and experience that will help prepare them for future responsibilities as adult members of our society.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 17th day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Six

RICHARD F. KNEIP, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

LORNA B. HERSETH, SECRETARY OF STATE
